Annapolis July 4th Parade 2006

Come join the fun! In addition to the traditional fireworks display, the Annapolis 2006 July 4th Celebration will continue our wildly popular old fashioned community parade. This patriotic Annapolis salute to our nation is always a crowd pleaser, with thousands of viewers lining the route.

NEW THIS YEAR...

As a run up to our celebration of Annapolis 300 in 2008, we'd like to encourage each participant group to embellish your parade entry with more elaborate decorations. We have received prize sponsorships for a variety of categories...including "Most Patriotic", "Best Neighborhood Entry", "Funniest", "Most Beautiful", "Best Wheeled Entry", "Best Animal Group"...the prizes may be lightweight this year, but we'll build towards a grand prize collection for 2008.

Due to additional activities taking place on the first block of West St, the parade route will be slightly altered.

PARADE ROUTE:

- Parking for parade participants will be at Maryland Hall, 801 Chase St.
- The parade will marshal along Amos Garrett Blvd beginning at 4:00 PM in designated order.
- The parade starts at 5:45 PM sharp!
- The parade will traverse down West Street, around Church Circle, down Main Street, left on Randall Street, and will end just past the Market House. From there, parade units can travel up Prince George St. or King George St. to move out of the downtown area.
- Please be sure to inform ALL your parade participants where the parking and parade marshaling areas are located.

Naval Academy Band: At 8:00, between the end of the parade and the beginning of the fireworks (approximately 9:00), music will be provided by the United States Naval Academy Band at Susan C. Campbell Park - just past the Harbor Master's office at City Dock.

Please complete the enclosed form and return it by Friday, June 9, 2006. Entries will not be accepted after this date. You may mail your entries to:
